ALFRED LISTER,
Postmaster
General Post Office,
Hongkong, 5th August, 1875.
To provide the greatest possible facility posting Correspondence for Europe, &c.

the latest moment before the departure French Packets, arrangements have been for receiving at the Post Office late letters Singapore and the United Kingdom on 11.10 A.M. to 11.30 A.M. Each letter must a late fee of 18 cents extra postage.

The above arrangement is intended for occasional emergencies, and not for the posting of extensive correspondence. It is found, therefore, that large and ageable numbers of letters are habitually upon the Department at the last moment, and a heavier late fee will be imposed.

A similar supplementary Mui will up for Shanghai by the English and Contract Steamers, the late letters bein ed from 10 minutes after, up to half after the time of closing. The late fee be 18 cents.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. A faint horizontal crease is visible near the top edge. The page is set against a dark background.
